

The Ultimate Coach

Preparing You for College and Career from Day One

Will you have what it takes to get into the job of your dreams or the college of your choice?

Would you like to...

... feel confident in your ability to write a college essay?

... stand out from all the other college or job applicants?

... get letters of recommendation that showcase your strengths and unique attributes?

... know how to answer the challenging interview questions?

... know how to dress for interviews and college visits?

With Amy Sauber's professional coaching you'll learn how to:

- Create a portfolio that demonstrates to employers and colleges what makes you a unique candidate
- Write college essays and thank you notes that make admissions officers or employers sit up and take notice
- Create a resume that shows your abilities, achievements and work experience in their best light
- Find out about a college or company before your first interview
- Make a positive first impression
- Prepare the best answers to the most common and the toughest interview questions
- Distinguish between "business dress" and "business casual"
- Request references or letters of recommendation that demonstrate why you are the ideal candidate for a college or job

Acceptance Letters Received!

Sample colleges in which Sauber's clients have been accepted:

Johns Hopkins, George Washington University (Presidential Scholarship), Drexel University (Presidential Scholarship), University of Maryland (Presidential Scholarship), Penn State University (Schreyer Honors College), Temple University, University of Pittsburgh, Georgia Tech University, University of Pennsylvania

Who is The Ultimate Coach?

Amy Sauber holds a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Education in Counseling and Organizational Behavior. She is an adjunct professor at Temple University's Fox School of Business. Her professional expertise spans 20 years in corporate training and human resources with companies in the retail, finance, travel, health, and cable industries from Florida to Alaska, as well as college business and general education instruction. Currently Ms. Sauber is on staff with an international software company.

At the college level, she served as chief trainer of the Professional Development course, a comprehensive career management program. As a Business Communications professor she is helping students learn the art of business writing and presentation skills. Ms. Sauber earned the Adjunct Professor Faculty Award, Fox School of Business, Temple University, October, 2012.

Read what parents and students say about the Ultimate Coach:

"Amy's excellent coaching surrounding the essay helped Brian gain admission to Penn State's Smeal School in record time. Brian's application was accepted in under a week. Amy helped Brian present the best version of him. She asked questions that led Brian to think outside the box and imagine himself already there. Amy guided us in terms of applying to the right level school for Brian."

Parent of a High School Senior

Amy Sauber is... smart, articulate, and makes her expectations clear. She works to make us better than we think we can be [and] because she has taught so well, I have improved my interviewing and networking skills. She really prepared me for the working world.

College Student

Mrs. Sauber has a genuine desire for her students to absorb the course content and encourages them "to be brilliant." Very welcoming of the foreign students in her class.

College Student

Call or e-mail Amy Sauber to learn more. PH 610.239.5911
agsauber@comcast.net

Hourly rates. No minimum. Customer-focused.